Cilji in kompetence:

Objectives and competences:

Cilj predmeta je spoznati davčno poročanje kot pomemben del finančnega računovodstva (davčni obračuni) in praktična sestavitev teh obračunov (DDV, obdavčitve dohodkov iz dejavnosti fizičnih oseb in dobička pravnih oseb).

Študent mora spoznati tudi druge specifične primere, kot so davčno poročanje v primeru poslovanja s povezanimi osebami, pri poslih nakupov podjetij in prenehanj podjetij (statusna preoblikovanja in prenehanje zaradi likvidacij)

Prav tako se praktično izdela in analizira obračun davka od dohodka pravnih oseb in obračun davka na dodano vrednost.

Spoznali bodo tudi davčne obveznosti rezidenčnih (svetovni dohodek) in nerezidenčnih družb

The main aim of the course is to learn about tax reporting as an important part of financial accounting (tax return – CIT and VAT) and the practical compilation of these calculations (VAT, taxation of income from the activities of natural persons and profit of legal entities).

Student must also learn about other specific cases, such as tax reporting in the case of dealings with related parties, in the case of company purchases and company terminations (M&A, status transformations and termination due to liquidations).

Also, the calculation of corporate income tax and the calculation of value added tax are practically prepared and analyzed. Persons liable to submit a CIT return are legal persons governed by domestic or foreign law.
